

ICCA-QMUL Task Force on Third-Party Funding

9 October 2017

LISBON

The report of the ICCA-Queen Mary Task Force on Third Party Funding in International Arbitration is now available for public comment (from 1 September until 31 October 2017). The Lisbon University Faculty of Law is hosting the first public event dedicated to the presentation and discussion of the Report.

The Task Force Co-Chairs, Professor Catherine Rogers, Professor Stavros Brekoulakis and ICCA Governing Board member Professor W.W. (Rusty) Park, look forward to engaging with public comment on the draft, which include chapters on the impact of third party funding on costs and security for costs, attorney-client privilege, and conflicts, together with overarching chapters on definitions, best practices, and the impact of third-party funding on investment arbitration.
